

Walk Four

Kingham Station Circular

A longer circular walk from Kingham Station through Foxholes Nature Reserve, past Bruern Abbey, up onto the ridge at Idbury and Nether Westcote with views down to Bledington.

This is number four in a series of walks from the Cotswolds Conservation Board designed to allow people to make their way to the start point using public transport.

Distance: 15km/9 miles

Time: allow 4-5 hrs

Buses: take X8 from Chipping Norton, West Street and ask for Kingham Station.

Trains: Rail Enquiries 08457 484950

OS Ref: SP256227, Explorer Sheet OL45

1 From the station turn right down the road and cross the River Evenlode by one of Bledington's doomsday mills to a T junction. Turn left then left again off the lane to a gate. Turn right onto the 'Oxfordshire Way'. Follow the field edge ahead.

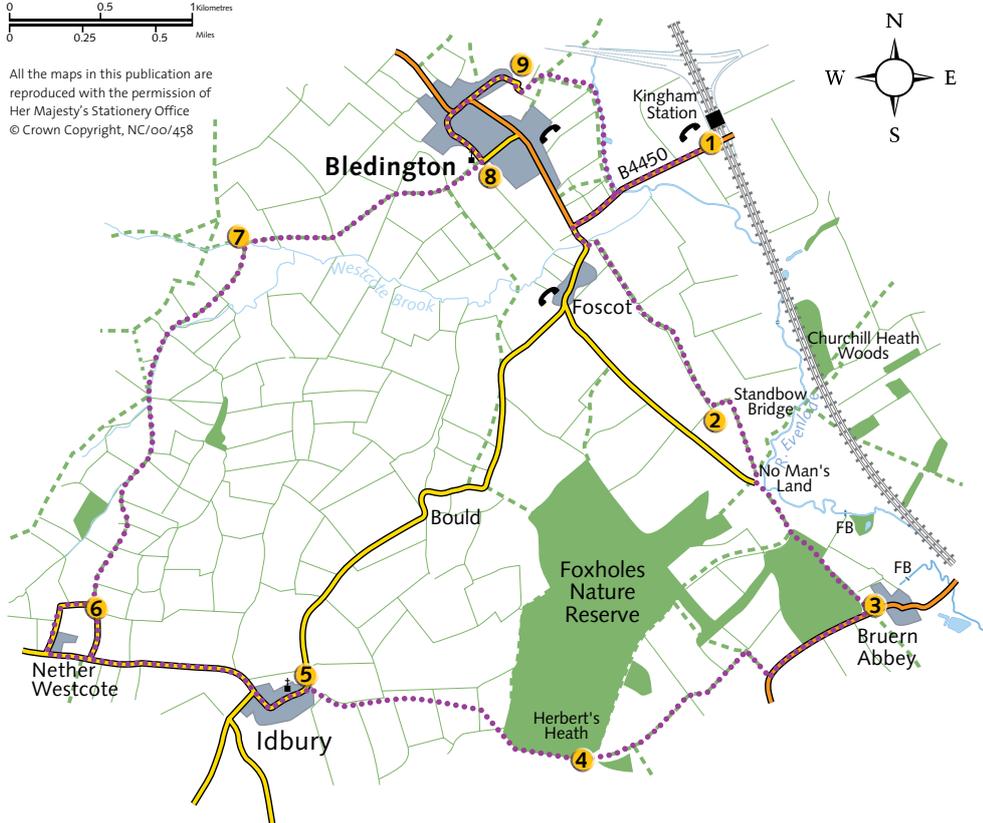

2 On reaching the open field turn left then right to follow the drainage ditch to a footbridge. Turn left immediately and follow the path through Cocks Moor Copse. Where the path leaves the wood continue straight along the edge of the field to a gate in a stone wall leading to a lane.

3 Turn right up the lane for 500 metres until it bends to the left. Turn right through a gate and walk across the field to a hedge. Turn left and follow the edge of the field to a farm track. Turn right and immediately left. Continue passing through a gate by a cattle grid, and down a slope to a second gate. Here turn right then immediately left and follow the track for 30 metres. Bear right at the trees following the track around the plantation.

4 Turn left and follow the track around to the right. At a path junction at the corner of the wood take the brideway right across the field to the gap in the hedge. Continue ahead across two fields and along the edge of two more. Turn right through a metal gate, cross a small field to gate and follow the track to Idbury.

All the maps in this publication are reproduced with the permission of Her Majesty's Stationery Office © Crown Copyright, NC/00/458

5 Turn left pass the church and take the lane ahead to Nether Westcote. Turn right down a narrow lane by Peach Tree Cottage. Where this lane turns to the left continue down hill on a brideway to a stile on the left by a gate.

6 Cross into field, turn right and continue down the edge of the field parallel to the brideway. Notice the ridge and furrow field patterns. Continue along edge of 4 fields crossing stiles until the path rejoins the brideway at a large gap in the hedge. Turn left for 50 metres then cross a stile on the right.

Follow the path to a gate. Cross the paddock to a stile and the next field to a footbridge.

7 Turn right following field edge then bear left across two fields to a bridge and stile. Go ahead alongside the hedge. At the corner of the field cross two stiles. Follow the edge of the next field and on through a cemetery to Bledington church.

8 Turn left down to the green. Turn right to the post office and continue ahead up the small lane. Where the lane ends follow the track to a stile and gate.

9 Turn left and follow the field edge and stream past a footbridge. Continue to a stile in the corner of the field. Cross this and follow the river past the sewage works. Keeping the stream to the left cross several fields and stiles to get to the road. Turn left up to the station.